Tyrone Guthrie Bursary

Residency at The Tyrone Guthrie Centre at Annaghmakerrig, Co. Monaghan

Please refer to the Guidance Notes before completing the Application Form

Application Guidance Notes

For residencies taking place between 1 April 2022 – 31 March 2023.

DEADLINE: Wednesday 9 March 2022, 4pm (sharp)

This bursary award is for a one-week Studio Residency at The Tyrone Guthrie Centre, Annaghmakerrig. A maximum of 4 professional artists will be awarded for the 2022/23 financial year. Applicants may only submit one application form.

One of the available bursaries will be prioritised for an artist with a disability. Ards and North Down Borough Council are committed to supporting artists with disabilities across all art genres. This bursary is launched in memory of Chris Ledger, late CEO of the University of Atypical.

Application for the Ards and North Down Bursary to The Tyrone Guthrie Centre 2022/23 is by an online application form available via our website:
<https://andculture.org.uk/funding>

If you require special assistance with this application process, or would prefer to complete a Word version of this application, please contact us before the deadline (no later than 12 noon on Friday 4 March 2022) so this can be arranged. Email:
artsgrants@ardsandnorthdown.gov.uk for more information.

Who is Eligible?

To be eligible you must meet all the following criteria:

- Resident within the Ards and North Down Borough Council Area.
- A practicing professional artist in any art discipline
- Aged 18 years+.

The applicant must be able to:

- Demonstrate a quality professional practice.
- Have sufficient experience and significant achievement in their creative practice.
- Be able to clearly state what they wish to accomplish during their residency, and clearly outline the benefits the residency will provide for the applicant and their practice.
- The residency cannot start before 1 April 2022 and must be completed by 31 March 2023.

The following essential documentation must be provided with your application:

- Up-to-date CV
- Artists Statement
- Support materials of your artistic practice (Images* and other supporting materials where applicable: publications/examples of writing, audio recordings for examples of music, short video footage of performances, etc).

It is recommended that you compile the essential documentation in the following formats before completing your application online, ready to be uploaded:

- Up-to-date CV (PDF document is preferable)
- Artists Statement (PDF document is preferable)
- Supporting materials in the following formats where applicable (Jpeg images no less than 1MB, audio files no more than 25MB, video files no more than 25MB, publications / examples of writing preferable as one PDF document)

\ A maximum of 6 supporting materials can be provided. Images which show examples of artists' work should be of high quality/resolution and clearly demonstrate the work. If you require further information on photographing your artwork, see page 4*

Failure to supply the requested essential documentation at time of application will result in your application not being assessed.

Further Information

Applicants should show significant achievement in their chosen field by providing supporting evidence appropriate to their particular art discipline. For example: writers should already have published in book form; visual artists should have had solo exhibitions in reputable galleries; composers, musicians, performers should have had their work commissioned, recorded or performed. Otherwise the applicant must demonstrate a high degree of promise attested by references from established figures in the arts.

Applicants who were successfully awarded a bursary to The Tyrone Guthrie Centre from Ards and North Down Borough Council in the previous financial year (1 April 2021 – 31 March 2022) will not be applicable to apply for the following financial year (1 April 2022 - 31 March 2023). Applicants in visual art/craft will however still be able to apply to the Ballinglen Arts Foundation Bursary for the 2022/23 financial year.

Applicants should state clearly what they wish to accomplish during their stay at The Tyrone Guthrie Centre. This project outline is often decisive and should demonstrate that the artist is working towards a body of work which would be enhanced by a bursary residency at the Foundation.

Scoring

Applications will be scored on the following criteria:

- Is the applicant resident within the Ards and North Down Borough Council area? (Yes/No)
- Quality of applicant's current artistic practice and experience of applicant (35%)
- Quality of work proposed and applicant demonstrates how the residency will benefit their artist's practice/skills (50%)
- Applicant demonstrates a tangible outcome EG: exhibition, new body of work, publication, etc (15%)

TIPS FOR PHOTOGRAPHING YOUR ARTWORK

- Position the artwork on a plain flat surface or hang on a wall, and position the camera looking straight at the artwork.
- Ensure the full artwork is shown in the photograph and not cropped.
- You may provide a detail/close up image of artwork if you have included a photograph of the full artwork as well.
- Use bright, indirect, natural light avoiding glare/reflections on the artwork or on glass of framed work.
- Do not use your camera flash.
- Do not include other objects in the photograph other than the artwork unless providing a high-quality photograph of the artwork in situ in a gallery space.
- Ensure that the photograph is clear (not blurred or too dark) and an accurate depiction of your artwork.
- Please ensure the photograph is of high quality and resolution.
