2.	Policy Name	Ards and North Down Borough Council Flags Policy June 2021
3.	Existing / Revised / New Policy	Revised policy
4.	Responsible Officer	Director of Organisational Development and Administration
5.	Description of policy to be screened	During the mourning period for Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, Council Officers received queries from several parties with regards to flying a flag at half-mast at war memorials. Mourning is usually expressed by lowering the national flag to half-mast. The existing flag policy made no provision for this. It was agreed by Council to make a slight amendment to the Flags Policy to make provision for the recognition of the death of a Monarch at war memorials. The proposed amended policy is: In addition to the period of Remembrance, flags at war memorials will be flown at half-mast following the death of the reigning Monarch.
	Aims and Expected Outcomes – what is the Policy expected to achieve?	The policy will provide clarity towards the flying of flags at war memorials following the death of the reigning Monarch.
6.	Section 75 categories which might be expected to benefit and how they may benefit.	All Section 75 categories should benefit from the clarity of this policy and the rationale for the decision taken in relation to each location.
7.	Factors which could contribute to / detract from the intended aims / outcomes of the Policy when being implemented	If the policy is not adhered to by the Council and any circumstances that require a decision outside the policy are taken without cognisance of the policy and its reporting procedure.

8.	The main stakeholders on whom the policy will impact. For example, Employees, Potential Service Users and Community Groups Consider the internal and external impacts (either actual or potential) and comment, or list, information where appropriate	The Council, Elected Members, employees, community representatives, Department for Communities, Royal British Legion, Statutory bodies, Local Government, serving members and veterans of the Armed Forces.

Political Opinion	Summary: Electoral Office data from recent Local Government elections detail the political representation on Ards and North Down Council, The Stormont Executive for this electoral area and Westminster election. This data is an approximate measure of political opinion of the voting electorate within the Borough. Turnout to vote in North Down and Strangford constituencies tend to be lower than the rest of NI suggesting less strong political opinions. Of those who do turn out, the results show preferences for voting Unionist parties. See table below Data: Council Election results The most recent local council election (2nd May 2019) showed: <table border="1" data-bbox="464 1854 1620 1900"> <thead> <tr> <th colspan="5">Elected Candidate</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Elected Candidate

Sexual orientation	Summary: It should be noted that no reliable data is available on sexual orientation-NISRA are currently examining methodology on how to measure this. However, the 2011 census indicates that less than 1% of the Northern Ireland adult population (those aged 16 years and over) were in a registered same-sex civil partnership. This was similar to the borough as a whole. The Continuous Household Survey in Northern Ireland estimated this figure between 0.9% and 1.9% in 2015-2016. The Office for National Statistics estimates a similar range for the United Kingdom (1.7%). Source: Northern Ireland 2011 Census, Marital Status ONS 2015 Sexual Identity
Men & Women generally	According to census (NISRA) almost half of the population of Northern Ireland were male (49%) and this was similar throughout Ards and North Down Borough Council (48%). See table below Data:
